Kimberly Bryant, speaker, is the Founder and Executive Director of Black Girls CODE. Bryant has served successfully as an engineering manager for various Fortune 100 companies employing science, technology, engineering, arts and mathematics (STEAM) professionals. Bryant has helped Black Girl CODE grow from a Bay Area organization to an international non-profit organization serving more than 3,000 African/African-American, Latina, and Native American girls. Bryant was honored in 2013 as a Champion of Change by the White House for her work in tech inclusion and for her focus on bridging the digital divide for girls. In 2016 she was nationally recognized by AAUW as a Woman of Distinction. Please join us for to learn innovative ideas so girls and you might change industries and the world. Door prize raffle offered.
